Branlyn Neighbourhood Association operates activities of a recreational nature. The purpose of the Softball League is to provide a recreational activity for adults in an atmosphere that promotes fun, sportsmanship and fair play. Registration includes shirts and season games from May to September. The BNA is 100% self-supporting. The Association receives NO funding from any tax revenues nor other public monies. Proceeds from registration go to support the Volleyball and Softball Activities for Youth and Adult. The BNA supports various activities such as Family Fun Day, Breakfast with Santa, Send-a-kid to Camp, Christmas Baskets, Neighbourhood Community Gardens and various other charities and projects as the BNA Executive determines the need.
